Towers spin-off

What is included in the Transaction

■ Active Infrastructure > Retained by A1

Site on rooftop

Site on the ground

- Simple constructions without technological advantage for telcos.
- Tower business comprises passive elements vs. active components that remain with A1.
- Added value is only created by installing the transmission and technology equipment.

A tower business is attractive, but not a core A1 business

Cornerstones of the A1 tower business EuroTeleSites

- A1 tower business (excl. Belarus) was spun-off on September 22, 2023.
- EuroTeleSites is listed on Vienna Stock Exchange, segment "Prime Market"; proportionate spin-off.
