Q2 2025

Core OPEX in Q2 excluding one-offs:

- Driven by higher advertising and product-related costs
- Lower costs for electricity, maintenance and stringent cost control and transformation partly offset increases

EBIT remained largely stable in Q2 and rose slightly in H1

- higher D&A due to different asset mix

Financial Result improved

- mainly due to higher interest income

Resulting in higher net result

H1 2025

Free Cash Flow in H1 2025 higher due to

- better operational result,
- lower CAPEX,
- favorable changes in working capital,
- offsetting higher leases paid.

Change in working capital and other changes:

- Favorable development in payables and receivables overcompensates increase in inventories and installment sales.

Focus Topics

Austria: Navigating through a challenging macro and competitive landscape with a customer-centric focus

Macro and market challenges

- 3rd year of recession
- High inflation: 8.6% (2022), 7.8% (2023) and increased price sensitivity
- Competitive pressure from MVNOs and in low-value cube market
- SIM-only trend
- Fibre roll-out:
 - high roll-out costs
 - low take rates
 - strong cube market
 - challenges from mobile-friendly regulation

Our Approach

- ✓ Grow customer base
- ✓ Churn prevention in fixed and tech-agnostic internet@home approach
- ✓ Regional sales push (Vienna)
- ✓ Increased strategic market investments
- ✓ Continuously reevaluating fiber program and potential fiber cooperations, i.e. Innsbruck

Austria: EBITDA impacted as strategic focus on long-term customer retention and strengthening market position persists

EBITDA excluding one-off effects and restructuring

- Slowdown in indexation versus previous year: 2.9% (Apr'25) vs 7.8% (Apr'24) and lack of upselling potential
- Service fee losses since Q1 2024
- Lower equipment margin due to increased subsidies
- Extensive market communications and advertising mitigated by efficiency measures and savings

Tackling challenges with customer-centric focus and using financial flexibility to invest into market

Austria: Mobile core net adds on the rise while internet@home segment faces headwinds – market shares remain resilient

Internet@home subscriber trends challenging

I@H

I@H <300 mbps

BBI >300 mbps

Net adds in mobile core trending positively

- Focus on fixed internet above 300 mbps
- Internet@Home:
 - technology-neutral approach below 300 mbps
 - cube gross adds trending positively
- Mobile core segment with positive trend in net additions
