Foreword

"Team, trust and agility" are our "values". They guide us as we realize our vision of "Empowering Digital Life" for our customers and society. We actively assume ecological, social, environmental responsibility and see "Environmental, Social & Corporate Governance (ESG)" as long-term value drivers. Our active fight against all forms of bribery and corruption and a strict commitment to the UN Global Compact Principles are an important part of this.

For us, it is important not only that we achieve our goals, it is also important HOW we achieve our goals. Ethically and legally impeccable conduct is a necessary prerequisite so that customers, employees and all stakeholders can trust us. In other words: integrity is the basis of our business. For us, integrity is more important than short-term business success. In case of doubt, we would rather forego business than enter into transactions that conflict with the law, our values or our internal policies.

To support this, we give ourselves clear rules defining what is allowed, but also what is not allowed. Of course, we adhere to legal regulations and to our internal rules, the Code of Conduct and the compliance policies.

Everyone knows that there is not a rule in place for every situation where a decision has to be made. But how do we behave in those cases? The answer is "ethically and with integrity", thus "honestly, fairly and transparently" - the way we ourselves want to be treated.

It must be our common ambition to sustainably secure the economic success and reputation of the A1 Telekom Austria Group by making conduct with integrity the natural basis of all our professional activities and decisions. It's purely up to us!

As we demand of ourselves, we also expect and demand lawful conduct and integrity from all our business partners.

The fight against corruption is a part of our ESG strategy

Right
results
and right
way

1 Objective of the Policy

Trust and fairness characterize the way we deal with our business partners. We do not tolerate bribery or corruption in any form.

The goal of this policy is to ensure that all relevant legal anti-corruption regulations including the FCPA (US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act) and the UK Bribery Act are observed across the group.

Violations of this policy are punished resolutely and without regard to rank and position of the persons concerned.

This policy helps to prevent financial or reputational damage to employees, management or companies of A1 Telekom Austria Group due to corruption risks.

First and foremost, our managers are responsible for integrity in our business by setting the appropriate tone-at-the-top. Therefore, they must regularly point out its significance, illustrate examples of proper behavior, and exemplify it through their personal conduct. Leadership commitment is key to establishing a culture of integrity, transparency, openness and compliance. The nature of our culture is critical to the success or failure of our anti-bribery management system<sup>1</sup> that is suitable to conform to the ISO 37001 (Anti-Bribery Management System) standard. Every individual behaving with integrity is the indispensable basis for sustainable business success.

top / middle

Unresolved conflicts of interest can also lead to serious damage. There is a conflict of interest when, financial, family, political or personal interests could interfere with our business activities or decisions. This policy provides help in avoiding or resolving a conflict of interest of this nature.

This policy applies to all our employees and managers. We contractually require our business partners<sup>2</sup>, where possible, to know, understand and implement the principles outlined in this policy.

2 Fighting Corruption

Corruption is a widespread phenomenon raising serious social, moral, economic and political concerns, undermining good governance. Corruption also increases the cost of doing business, introduces uncertainties into commercial transactions, destroys trust and interferes with the fair and efficient operation of markets and thus impedes economic development.

Corruption
is the abuse of entrusted power for private gain

The reputation of A1 Telekom Austria Group is formed by the way we interact with our business partners. We obey the law and treat our business partners as we would like to be treated ourselves. Our relationships with business partners are characterized by trust and fairness. We must not allow private interests and personal advantages to interfere with our business decisions.

Trust and fairness

We win contracts fairly, based on the quality and price of our attractive products and services. Accordingly, we will never offer, promise or grant illegal benefits to public officials or decision-makers in the private industry in order to win a contract. This includes but is not limited to gifts, loans, assets, hospitality, travel, vacation, payment of commissions or rewards in the form of benefits in cash or in kind, job offers, special personal services that are offered or given with the intention of doing so

No bribery!

- to gain an undue advantage or
- to put someone under moral pressure to get this advantage or
- to influence a decision.

Moreover, within the scope of their work, all employees have the responsibility to ensure that external parties do not have the opportunity to exert improper influence on decisions made by A1 Telekom Austria Group.

<sup>1</sup> The A1 Group Compliance / Anti-Corruption Policy, the roles and responsibilities for the risk-oriented implementation of measures and processes in the area of prevention and for the detection of compliance violations, as well as for the further development of the A1 Group Compliance Management System are summarized in the description of the A1 Group Compliance Management System published on the A1 Group website.

No one will suffer retaliation, discrimination or disciplinary action for refusing to engage in bribery or for revealing a corrupt act. Whistleblowers who report in good faith are protected against any form of retaliation at A1 Telekom Austria Group, irrespective of the legal requirements for whistleblower protection.

In the event of investigations by authorities (e.g. dawn raids), we immediately inform the Heads of Legal and Compliance and the Senior Director(s) of the area(s) affected by the investigation. When dealing with representatives of the authorities, we conduct ourselves in a professional and cooperative manner.

2.1 Ban on Bribery

In dealing with business partners, customers, suppliers, the authorities and other public officials, all employees and managers, without exception, are prohibited from offering, promising or granting, directly or indirectly, financial or other advantages or approving such advantages if by doing so the recipient is to be induced to commit an unlawful act or omission. Such offers, promises, grants, gifts and invitations and other benefits of this nature may also not be made if they can be understood as an attempt to improperly influence a public official or a business partner. We strictly avoid any appearance of inappropriateness and dishonesty.

Furthermore, granting advantages to public officials is subject to particularly strict regulations. In this case, granting benefits even for dutiful official acts of the public official is only permitted to a very limited extent. Strictly forbidden are payments or any other advantages (anything of value) to influence an act or decision of a public official, to influence the enactment or promulgation of legislation or regulations, or to induce public officials to misuse their influence to shape or have an impact on an act or decision for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business. Benefits of minimal value that are characteristic of the particular place and country are allowed, as are benefits within the scope of an event that the public official has a justified objective reason for attending. For more details, see 4.3.

If there is an advantage in reciprocity for accelerating or ensuring an official act, this is illegal and there is a ban on making such "facilitation payments". It is not a breach of this policy if not paying would endanger the personal health of employees or close relatives ("extortion payments"). Such incidents must be reported to the Compliance manager.

If we are requested by public officials or by decision-makers in private industry to grant unfair advantages or if we perceive acts of bribery in the company, we inform our manager or report this on the tell.me whistleblowing portal of the A1 Telekom Austria Group (tell.me whistleblowing portal) or to a Compliance manager (contact list).

We do not bribe!

No excuse!

Facilitation payments prohibited

Demands for bribery are to be reported

2.2 Ban on Corruptibility / Inbound Bribery

We make our business decisions exclusively in the interests of A1 Telekom Austria Group putting aside personal interests. When making business decisions, we cannot allow ourselves to be influenced by suppliers or other business partners that offer or promise us improper benefits, and we will not accept such benefits if they are offered to us. In addition, we do not request our suppliers or other business partners to grant us any improper advantages.

We wish to avoid even the slightest perception that undue advantages granted to us might influence our business decisions. Whenever we are uncertain if we are allowed to accept a gift, an invitation to a business meal or an invitation to an event from a supplier, we can check this by means of the section 4 "Gifts & Invitations" below. For open questions, we contact our manager or a Compliance manager or send an e-mail to "ask.me@A1.group".

If undue advantages are offered, promised or granted to us or if we perceive instances of corruption in the company, we inform our manager or report it on the tell.me whistleblowing portal of A1 Telekom Austria Group or to a Compliance manager.

We cannot be bribed!

No excuse!

Attempts at bribery are to be

2.3 Ban on Bribing through Third Parties

Employees of A1 Telekom Austria Group are not permitted to grant financial or other advantages to a business partner, consultant, agent, intermediary or other third party, or to approve an advantage of this nature, if circumstances indicate that they are wholly or partially being used, directly or indirectly, to induce a public official or a person in the private sector to commit an illicit act or omission or to influence a public official in some other way that is not allowed.

In this regard, A1 Telekom Austria Group places high demands on the integrity of business partners that are also included in contractual agreements. A1 Telekom Austria Group will either not cooperate with business partners or persons acting on its behalf who have a track record of acting without integrity or of illegal business conduct (particularly corruption) or establish appropriate measures to ensure ethical and legal behavior.

Within the framework of business partner selection, a risk-based, documented business partner integrity check will be conducted.

We work only with business partners of integrity

We check the integrity of our business partners

2.4 Mergers & Acquisitions

Within the scope of buying and selling majority and minority interests by A1 Telekom Austria Group, in the context of risk identification of the investment or divestment decision, important compliance risks must be appropriately recorded and considered accordingly (risk-based compliance due diligence).

It is particularly important to ensure that when commissioning consultants, intermediaries or other third parties in the M&A process, not to tolerate any form of corruption whatsoever.

Group Compliance must be involved in due course to make sure that the targeted companies themselves, their owners, their managers or the ultimate beneficiary as well as the structure of the deal do not expose A1 Telekom Austria Group to an undue compliance risk.

After the acquisition, the integration must include a plan for mitigating possible remaining compliance risks and for quickly implementing the standard A1 Telekom Austria Group Compliance Management System at the acquired company. The implementation progress must be reported regularly to Group Compliance.

Inherent Compliance risks of M&A must be mitigated

3 Avoiding and Dealing with Conflicts of Interest

Our professional activities are oriented exclusively towards the interests of the company. All employees and managers are called upon to avoid situations in which their personal, family, political or financial interests could conflict with the interests of A1 Telekom Austria Group. We avoid situations that could give any impression that our business decisions are influenced by personal interests.

However, it is not always possible to prevent such conflicts of interest. Without being asked, we disclose possible conflicts of interest to our manager immediately and in full.

We disclose any conflict of interest to our manager

3.1 Conflicts of Interest from Secondary Employment

Secondary employment is any activity outside of the primary place of work at A1 Telekom Austria Group in which an employee works for a third party to a significant extent – irrespective of whether the work is paid or not paid. This also applies to self-employment as secondary employment.

We are not allowed to engage in secondary employment that is contrary to the material interests of A1 Telekom Austria Group, in particular if there are reasons of competition or reputation to the contrary.

Paid secondary employment is subject to special reporting obligations (reporting in SAP or other reporting channels set up for this purpose) and, if it impedes one's professional duties in A1 Telekom Austria Group, it can be prohibited by the Human Resources department<sup>3</sup>. Board activities in companies outside A1 Telekom Austria Group (e.g. management board, supervisory board or advisory board) have to be reported as well.

Employees and managers are not required to report occasional writing activities, lectures, volunteer work and comparable incidental activities, as long as the time spent does not negatively affect the employee's work.

Secondary employment and external board functions to be reported

3.2 Private Investments

Employees who influence or can exert influence on the awarding of contracts of purchase must disclose their stake in the company of a possible business partner to their manager and the relevant business unit negotiating the contract prior to their involvement in this decision if the stake exceeds 5%. This also applies to stakes of close relatives (spouse, partner, children, siblings, parents, close relatives of spouses and persons at least 1 year living together in the same household).

Shares held in companies competing with A1 Telekom Austria Group that allow a business influence<sup>4</sup> are subject to approval by the Management Board.

Personal influence on business partners to be reported

3.3 Conflicts of Interest with Close Relatives

The following internal business relations with close relatives (definition see 3.2) must be reported as soon as possible to the manager and Human Resources via the designated reporting channel (e.g. SAP):

- authority or supervisory power of the one over the other,
- interaction in accounting processes or handling of financial or material assets (wherever the four-eyes principle applies).

We report in due course to our manager and to the department involved in the negotiations if, during contract negotiations, we ourselves can exert influence on the part of the company and on the part of the business partners close relatives.

We do not exert any influence on the hiring process of close relatives. It is, however, permitted to pass on contact details of applicants who appear suitable, even in the case of close relatives.

Report critical business relations with close relatives

3.4 Conflicts of Interest from Functions in Associations

We also report potential conflicts of interest if we or close relatives are involved in a decision-making process as a body of an association and the respective other in a function in A1 Telekom Austria Group.

We report conflicts of interest in functions of an association

<sup>4</sup> Competing company under this regulation is every company that operates in the same line of business as A1 Telekom Austria Group irrespective of A1 Telekom Austria's Group current footprint.

A business influence always exists if the management can be influenced through the interests held. This is not dependent on any threshold, but always applicable in the case of a strategic minority share (25 % plus one share).

3.5 Handling Company Property

We handle company property at our disposal properly and with care. Generally, we do not use company property for private purposes or for activities that do not serve the purpose of the company. Private use of company property is permitted only if allowed by the respective internal regulations.

Also intellectual property such as copyrights, trademarks and patent rights are valuable assets that we protect against unauthorized use.

Personal use of company property

3.6 Using Social Networks and Collaboration Platforms

Employees may only formulate postings on social media as personal opinions, so that they cannot be understood as a company opinion. Official statements only come from A1 accounts and/or from authorized personal accounts (e.g. board members, leadership team, press officer).

Everyone is allowed to share publicly available information with everyone, but the duty of confidentiality for internal, confidential and secret information must be respected.

We also comply with internal policies (e.g. policy for Workplace) when using our A1 Telekom Austria Group collaboration platforms.

On social media we post our personal

3.7 Rebates and Business Partner's Incentive Programs

We do not accept personal rebates from business partners or competitors of A1 Telekom Austria Group that are granted to us privately with regard to our job at A1 Telekom Austria Group, unless these rebates are offered to all the employees or to a large group of employees at A1 Telekom Austria Group.

Incentive programs from business partners who aim to sell products through our sales channels must be consistent with the internally defined sales strategy and be officially approved by management.

4 Gifts and Invitations

Giving and accepting gifts and extending and accepting invitations to business meals or events is part of everyday business life. However, without due care and attention, this can lead to accusations of bribery, corruption or other criminal offenses.

The aim of this regulation is to ensure that neither giving nor accepting gifts or invitations results in any financial or reputational damage for the management, the employees or companies of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

Concerning gifts and invitations, we always pay attention to economic efficiency, appropriateness and the effect on public perception, regardless of the following detailed regulations. The value limit of € 200 per half-year cited in the following chapters means that the total value of all the gifts and invitations accepted or the total value of all the gifts given and invitations granted per business partner is not allowed to exceed a value of € 200 per half-year.

Gifts and invitations must be given and accepted transparently, in good faith and without expectation of anything in return.

Gifts and invitations must always be appropriate

The value of gifts is to be added up with the value of invitations

4.1 Accepting Gifts and Invitations

4.1.1 Accepting Gifts

Gifts may not exceed a value of € 200 per business partner (= company) and half-year.

Limit of €200 per business

If this value is exceeded, we politely decline the gift. If the rejection does not appear appropriate, approval must be obtained from the manager and documented.

partner and per half-year

Gifts are not allowed if there is a connection between receiving the gift and a business decision by the recipient.

Add up with
invitations

Under no circumstances may the acceptance of the gift be subject to conditions.

The acceptance of monetary gifts (e.g. in the form of cash, money transfers, interest-free or low-interest loans, vouchers, complimentary use of credit cards) is not permitted.

If business partners provide e.g. devices free of charge, we always observe our internal rules.

4.1.2 Accepting Invitations to Business Meals

Invitations to business meals that are consistent with local practices are allowed up to a value of € 200 per business partner (= company) and half-year<sup>5</sup>.

Add up with gifts

If the invitation is also for a private accompanying person, it can be accepted. However, this requires written approval by the manager and the values need to be added up for the € 200 threshold.

4.1.3 Accepting Invitations to Events

Attendance at events with a clear business character (e.g. training courses, company or product presentations) including appropriate catering is permitted.

Consider possible conflicts of interest

Accepting invitations from business partners to events that do not have a clear business focus (e.g. sponsoring, marketing or sales events) or to events without any business character requires approval by one's manager and must be documented. If the value of the invitation exceeds € 200, approval shall only be given in justifiable exceptional cases.

Invitations for accompanying persons may only be accepted if written approval is given by one's manager.

Not allowed during ongoing negotiations

The costs of travel and accommodation must in general be covered by the respective A1 Telekom Austria Group company. Otherwise, final approval by the respective A1 Group Management Board Member is required, if the invitee does not render services in return (e.g. lecturing).

If there is a connection to a business decision, it is not allowed to accept the invitation.

4.2 Giving Gifts and Inviting Business Partners

4.2.1 Giving Gifts

Gifts are not allowed to exceed a value of € 200 per business partner (= individuals) and half-year<sup>6</sup>.

No unfair influence on business
decisions

Gifts are not allowed if there is any kind of connection between giving the gift and a decision to be made by the business partner.

Under no circumstances, the granting of the gift may be subject to conditions.

Monetary gifts (e.g. in the form of cash, money transfers, interest-free or low-interest loans, vouchers, complimentary use of credit cards) may not be given.

<sup>5</sup> Members of the Management Board / managing directors are permitted, if the interests of the company warrant it, to accept invitations to business meals from business partners or to extend invitations to business partners that exceed a value of € 200.

<sup>6</sup> Exception: Handsets and other products sold by A1 as well as calling / data credit worth more than € 200 may be given by a very limited group of people determined by the Management Board under the following conditions: first, there is a business connection and secondly all other rules for granting gifts (see above) are strictly observed.

4.2.2 Inviting Business Partners to Business Meals

Invitations to business meals that are compatible with local law and practices are allowed up to a value of € 200 per business partner (= individual) and half-year.

4.2.3 Granting Invitations to Events

Invitations to attend events with a clear business character (e.g. training courses, company or product presentations), including appropriate hospitality, are allowed. Travel and accommodation costs are not allowed to be covered by the inviting party. The local Management Board must approve exceptions to travel and accommodation costs.

Invitations to events that do not have a clear business character (e.g. sponsoring, marketing or sales events) or to events without any business character are permitted. However, the non-business part of the event must be designed appropriately and having in mind the public perception.

In the following cases, the board / management must approve events with a partial / non-commercial character:

- if the event has a value greater than € 200 for the invitee,
- if travel and accommodation costs are covered by us,
- if accompanying persons of the business partner are invited.

If there is a connection to an entrepreneurial decision of the business partner, the invitation may not be issued.

The events and guest lists are to be documented and archived in the department organizing the event.

Consider possible conflicts of interest

Not allowed during ongoing negotiations

4.3 Giving Gifts and Invitations to Public Officials

Gifts to public officials<sup>7</sup> are generally not allowed<sup>8</sup>.

Inviting public officials to business meals must be commensurate with the positions of the people involved (for example: a modest lunch within the scope of a company or product presentation) and in line with the law and the compliance policy of the public official. The costs of the invitation to business meals are limited to a maximum value of € 200 per half-year and public official. On no account is the invitation allowed to give the impression of trying to exert influence.

Invitations to public officials to attend events with a clear business character (e.g. training courses, company or product presentations) including appropriate catering are permitted. The costs of travel and accommodation are not allowed to be taken over.

Invitations to public officials to events that do not have a clear business character (e.g. sponsoring, marketing or sales events) are permitted. Accompanying persons may only be invited if it would not be appropriate to appear at the event unaccompanied. However, a written statement by the public officials that participation in the event does not conflict with internal policies to which they are subject must be provided.

The organization of the non-business part of the event should be appropriate and consideration must be given to the effect it will have on public perception. The costs of travel and accommodation must be covered by the public officials.

If there is a connection to a business decision by the public officials, the invitation may not be extended.

The events, guest lists and statements of the public officials that participation in the event does not conflict with applicable policy must be documented and archived in the department organizing the event.

No invitations without a business character to public officials

<sup>8</sup> Group companies with its headquarters outside Austria are allowed to grant usual courtesies of nominal value (up to EUR 50) on special occasions if allowed by law and ethically correct.

Invitations to public officials to events without any kind of business character are not permitted.

Public officials may be invited to large A1 networking events provided this is legally permissible and customary. However, a confirmation by the public officials that participation in the event does not conflict with internal guidelines to which they are subject must be provided.

4.4 Internal Gifts and Invitations

Personal internal gifts on specific company occasions, such as welcome packages, company anniversaries or retirement, as well as prizes as part of internal competitions are permitted. The local Management Board / Executive Board or a Leadership Team member may decide that other internal gifts are also granted to all or a majority of the employees. Internal gifts have to be appropriate and comply to local tax regulations.

Gifts to individual employees at company expense on occasions that are not work-related, such as birthday gifts, Christmas or Easter gifts, are not permitted. Monetary gifts are generally prohibited.

For the purposes of this policy, the term "gifts" does not include all performance-related benefits (recognition awards in accordance with the relevant policy issued by Human Resources, including non-cash bonuses and benefits provided in accordance with a collective bargaining agreement or a compensation guideline) or benefits granted for social reasons.

Internal invitations to events with a clear business focus (e.g. information events, training courses, company or product presentations) including appropriate hospitality are permitted.

Internal invitations<sup>9</sup> to business meals are permitted if there is a business interest and require the approval of the manager; this must be documented. Attention shall be paid to possible local or occasion-related communicated amount limits.

Business partners must not cover all the costs for events without any business focus exclusively for employees of A1 Telekom Austria Group (e.g. Christmas parties).

Invitations to accompanying persons of employees are allowed in justifiable exceptional cases. However, they require approval by the manager of the person extending the invitation which has to be documented.

5 Sponsoring, Donations and Advertising

Sponsoring, donations and advertising are inherently exposed to an increased bribery risk. Hence, rules and procedures have been implemented to protect the company as well as its employees and managers.

Sponsoring is a special form of marketing, in which the advertising impact is intended to be achieved not through publication in a conventional medium (print, TV) but by advertising measures within the scope of an event organized by a third party (e.g. sports, culture).

As a responsible member of society, A1 Telekom Austria Group supports education, science, social concerns and the environment within its legal and economic possibilities by making monetary donations and donations in kind. As opposed to sponsoring, the funding body does not expect a commercial consideration in making a donation.

In the context of this guideline, advertising is only addressed under the aspect of the independence of journalistic reporting.

Definitions

<sup>9</sup> An invitation is considered to be internal whenever the focus is on internal employees and not on participants of an external business partner.

5.1 Sponsoring

Prior to concluding a sponsoring contract, the following must be verified that:

- the type of event is compatible with the brand identity of A1,
- the compensation for the sponsoring is valuable and a comparison of the financial amount of the sponsoring engagement with market prices (checked by Marketing) shows a favorable result,
- in terms of marketing or compliance aspects, the organizer of the sponsored event does not have a negative history and is not subject to any conflict of interest (business partner integrity check) and that no other negotiations with the organizer are pending,
- the event has been approved in accordance with the detailed regulations listed below.

In principle, we do not sponsor events that are organized by political parties or public authorities. Exceptions to this (e.g. events with broad public impact, which do not focus on the political character) require in any case approval by the local Management Board.

The Sponsoring Board is managed and organized by Marketing or the department responsible. Further members are at least Communications, Legal, Purchasing, Sales and Compliance. It meets at least once a year and decides on all the sponsorship activities for the entire year. For additional ad-hoc sponsorship activities, approval by the members of the Sponsoring Board is obtained by circulation procedure. Sponsorship applications that have not been unanimously approved by the local Sponsoring Board can only be submitted to the local Management Board together with the reasons for approval or rejection.

The annual sponsoring plan approved by the local Sponsoring Board is approved by the local Management Board or the Leadership Team and thereafter within the Monthly Performance Calls and by the A1 Group Management Board.

All sponsoring activities not included in the annual sponsoring plan or exceeding the originally planned amount have to be checked by the local Sponsoring Board and approved by the local Management Board or the Leadership Team and, if exceeding € 20,000, also within the Monthly Performance Call and by the A1 Group Management Board. In the application to the Monthly Performance Call and the A1 Group Management Board, the total amount of the sponsoring activities approved so far for the current year and a confirmation of the locally carried out compliance check must be stated.

All sponsoring activities not included in the sponsoring plan and finally approved only locally (up to € 20,000) must be reported within the Monthly Performance Call and to the A1 Group Management Board. The report must contain the sponsoring activities individually with the sponsoring recipient, the subject matter and amount of the sponsoring, the confirmation of the compliance check carried out, as well as the total amount of the sponsoring activities approved so far for the current year.

All sponsorships shall be budgeted and posted to the cost center of the department responsible (Marketing or Communications). This department has the responsibility of ensuring that the services provided by the contractual partner are adequately documented and archived (preferably directly in SAP).

No sponsoring without appropriate consideration

Consideration to be documented

Sponsoring is to be checked by the Sponsoring Board and to be approved by the Management Board

5.2 Donations

Donations in money or in kind to individuals, to private bank accounts or to political parties or organizations that are closely related to political parties are not allowed. This also applies to organizations that could damage the interests or reputation of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

The amount of the donation must be appropriate with regard to the profitability of the company. Possible local legal restrictions, e.g. concerning embezzlement, must be observed.

Donations require the approval of the local Sponsoring Board and subsequent approval by the local Management Board or the Leadership Team. Donations of more than € 20,000 also require the approval within the Monthly Performance Call and of the A1 Group Management Board. In the application to the Monthly

Donations are to be checked by the Sponsoring Board and to be approved by the Management Board Performance Call and the A1 Group Management Board, the total amount of the donation activities approved so far for the current year and a confirmation of the locally carried out compliance check must be stated.

All donations up to € 20,000 not already included in the sponsoring plan and only approved locally must be reported in the Monthly Performance Calls and to the A1 Group Management Board. The report must list all donations individually with the recipient of the donation, the subject and amount of the donation and confirmation of the compliance check carried out, as well as the total amount of donations approved to date for the current year.

Donations must be budgeted and reported on the cost center of the CEO of the company. The addressee and intended use of the donations are documented centrally in each group company.

5.3 Advertising

We promote a culture of transparent, honest and responsible advertising.

We respect the independence of journalistic reporting. Therefore, under no circumstances will we influence journalistic reporting by placing advertisements or providing free services.

We do not take over any editorial costs incurred for reporting, e.g. travel expenses. Exceptions require a resolution by the Management Board.

We will not place any advertisements in the media of political parties or politically related organizations.

We respect

6 Management Consulting and Lobbying

Management consulting and lobbying contracts are inherently exposed to an increased bribery risk. Hence, the following rules and procedures have been implemented to protect the company and its employees and managers.

The aim of this policy is to ensure that applicable standards are not violated and that the employees, management or companies of A1 Telekom Austria Group do not suffer any financial or reputational damage, from a consulting or lobbying mandate, in particular due to misuse of the consulting or lobbying fees.

Management consulting<sup>10</sup> occurs when an external company or an external individual submits a problem analysis with suggestions for action to the management. The regulations for management consulting apply by analogy to legal advice, tax advice, operational public relation agency services (e.g., support for press conferences, sending press releases), media monitoring and market research studies (e.g. customer trends) of the operating units of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

Lobbying occurs when an external company or an external individual provides information directly or indirectly to a public official or makes suggestions on behalf of a company belonging to A1 Telekom Austria Group.

Strict rules
apply

6.1 Approval of Management Consulting & Lobbying

Prior to concluding a management consulting or a lobbying contract, it must be ensured that

- the selection of the mandated company (including an invitation to tender, contract negotiations and final supplier selection) and the optimization of the price / performance ratio conforms to the Purchasing Policy;
- a business partner integrity check with no red flags was carried out by Purchasing – red flags or ambiguous cases require clarification with Compliance;

<sup>10</sup> A classification of management consulting services can be found as Annex 3.

- budgetary funding is ensured;
- all required board approvals have been obtained (Local Management Board and, if the contract or the annual vendor orders for management consulting exceed € 75,000 also within the Monthly Performance Call and the A1 Group Management Board<sup>11</sup> approval is needed). In the application to the Monthly Performance Call and to the A1 Group Management Board, the total amount of the previous management consulting and lobbying contracts compared to the budget and a confirmation of the locally carried out compliance check must be stated;
- all locally approved management consulting and lobbying contracts (below € 75.000,-) must be reported within the Monthly Performance Call and to the A1 Group Management Board. The report must contain all management consulting and lobbying contracts individually with business partners, the subject matter and the amount of the previous management consulting and lobbying contracts compared to the budget and confirmation of the compliance check carried out;
- also legal advice, tax advice, operational public relation agency services (e.g. support for press conferences, sending press releases), media monitoring and market research studies (e.g. customer trends) of the operating units of A1 Telekom Austria Group are to be approved in analogy to the approval requirements for management consulting contracts within the Monthly Performance Call and by the A1 Group Management Board or reported to it;
- the approval of the A1 Group CFO and the Director Group Accounting is required for each financial advisory (including any services provided by the "Big Four" auditing firms) is available;
- no success fees have been agreed in lobbying contracts and
- a lobbying agency or an external lobbyist fulfils all the legal requirements (e.g. is registered in a public register where required by law).

If there is any doubt about the assignment of a service as a management consulting or lobbying contract, Compliance must be consulted.

6.2 Documentation Requirements for Management Consulting & Lobbying

The department requesting the management consulting or lobbying service must ensure that the services provided by the contractual partner are documented comprehensively and transparently (such as by means of a final report or evidence of actual hours performed), so that the service provided can be traced at any time by an external expert (preferably directly in SAP).

No payment without meaningful documentation

7 Code of Conduct for Lobbying Activities

The representation of interests and the exchange of information are key elements of a healthy and prosperous democracy. We act in accordance with the law, honestly and accurately in our interrelations with political institutions and legislative, executive bodies and the society. Integrity, transparency and compliance with the basic democratic order are requirements for the work of the in-house lobbyists of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

We do not mislead anyone by using inaccurate or incomplete information. We avoid all forms of dishonesty or illegal information research.

We act transparently and are always open about our identity and the specific concerns of the employer.

We observe all restrictions on activities and incompatibility rules announced for the functionary.

Avoid any behavior that could damage the reputation

<sup>11</sup> In certain cases, TAG Supervisory Board approval may also be required.

In order to articulate and pursue the interests of A1 Telekom Austria Group, we do not exert any unfair, improper, inappropriate or illegal influence on function holders, in particular neither through direct nor indirect financial or other material incentives.

We avoid any behavior that could damage the reputation of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

We register all in-house lobbyists in a public register, if required by law.

8 Voice your Concerns

Information provided by honest and upright employees are effective measures to identify risks at an early stage in companies and to detect misconduct and thus to protect A1 Telekom Austria Group from serious dangers. Any employee but also any other person affected can report a violation or a suspected violation of the legal framework, our Code of Conduct and internal policies. We value whistleblowers who provide information to the best of their knowledge.

Internal whistleblowers should first approach their direct manager for initial support. If a manager receives a whistleblower report, the Compliance team must be informed of this report. Alternatively, reports can be sent directly to the Compliance Manager responsible (list of contacts).

The tell.me whistle-blower portal of the A1 Telekom Austria Group at <https://whistleblowersoftware.com/secure/tell-me>, is also available for reports on (suspected) misconduct - completely anonymous if desired.

Alternatively, in accordance with the legal provisions, information may also be provided to the authorities, subject to the statutory protection of whistleblowers.

Honest whistleblowers will not suffer any disadvantages because of information given to the best of their knowledge and belief. This also applies to information that is not covered by local whistleblower protection laws. The Compliance department is responsible for the operational implementation of whistleblower protection. Whistleblowers can turn to Compliance if they feel adversely affected by any form of (perceived) measure as a result of the whistleblowing.

Tips by employees are the most valuable source of information

9 Zero Tolerance of Misconduct

Misconduct and violations of anti-corruption laws and internal ethical requirements can have severe consequences not only for the individual personally, but also for the entire company. A1 Telekom Austria Group disciplines deliberate, unlawful misconduct and violations of internal policies consistently, regardless of the rank or position of the person involved.

Perpetrators will be sued for reimbursement of all damages suffered.

Also, business partners have to expect appropriate consequences in case of breach of contractual compliance obligations or violations of anti-corruption laws.

We do not tolerate violations of our rules

10 Applicability and Communication

This policy applies to all members of the Management Board, Managing Directors, Leadership Teams, managers, employees and members of the external workforce of all companies of A1 Telekom Austria Group.

Austrian citizens must also observe Austrian anti-corruption regulations when abroad.

This policy shall be adopted and implemented in each company<sup>12</sup> of A1 Telekom Austria Group, as long as they are not contradicted by any mandatory legal grounds or country-specific conventions. Any need to adapt this policy due to such contradiction shall be agreed with Group Compliance. Stricter national legal regulations must be observed and take precedence over this policy.

This policy is to be communicated regularly in line with the compliance communication and training plan. This is the responsibility of the local Compliance department or the Compliance manager, who is supported accordingly by the Communications department.

After resolution by the management of the respective operating company, this policy replaces existing policies on this subject. In terms of local implementation, existing processes (e.g. regarding the documentation) and controls (e.g. controls within the internal control system) must be taken into account. If it is necessary to adapt processes or controls, this shall be carried out in agreement with the local Compliance department or Compliance manager responsible.
